Prairie Women

Cancelled
Prairie Women's Group meets today, June 18, with a potluck after the service. Other summer dates are July 16 and August 18, always the third Sunday of the month. Mark your calendars and plan to be there.

July 2 at Grindrods

John and Shirley Grindrod will host a potluck picnic for all Prairie members and friends on July 2 from 1:30 to 5 p.m. at their home overlooking Lake Mendota. Address is 5235 Harbor Court. Further information will be available soon. There will be no service at Prairie that Sunday.

Coach Needed

One dependable person is urgently needed to coach The Dragons, an Allied Drive/Dunn's Marsh T-Ball team for 7 to 9 year-olds. Games take place Monday and Wednesday afternoons. If you are interested call Sunshine Jones, 276-8010, for details.

Missing Name Tags

Please help solve this mystery, if you can. Lee Bullen recently did calligraphy work on nametags for new Prairie members. They have been misplaced. Does anyone recall seeing them at Prairie? Please call the office if you can offer any clues.

Office Work Available

James Reeb UU Church needs a quarter-time office administrator. Duties include paying bills, keeping membership and pledge records up to date, and other general office work. For a complete job description and application, contact the James Reeb church office at 242-8887.

Prairie Board Meets

The Prairie Executive Board meets at 7:30 p.m., Monday (tomorrow), June 19 at the Meetinghouse. All members and friends are invited to attend.

Literary Reading

Fran Zell will be participating in a reading by winners of The Writers' Place 1995 literary awards competition, to take place at 7 p.m. on Friday June 23 at the Writers' Place, 122 State Street, sixth floor. She won first place in the fiction competition for her short story, "Sunday School Blues," inspired by her years in Jewish Sunday school. The reading is free and open to the public.

Get your written announcement to the office by Monday, June 19, to have it appear with next week's Order of Service.
