

Prairie Unitarian-Universalist Society
Madison, Wisconsin
November 21, 1999

Musical Prelude: “Prima Donna”, sung by Kay Frazier, Taliese Johnson, and Paula Pachciarz, Doleta Chapru at the piano (recorded by Carl Wacker)

Welcome—Nancy Schraufnagel, President

Chalice Lighting—For Thorstein Veblen (1857-1929) — Warren Hagstrom

Joys and Sorrows

Round: “Why Shouldn’t My Goose...,” page 66 in Prairie Songbook (led by Doleta Chapru)

Skit: Prairie High School Kids and Lisa Glueck

(Children leave for religious education)

Reading: From Veblen, The Theory of the Leisure Class (1899) — George Calden

“Conspicuous Consumption, Competitive Consumption, Competitive Gift Giving:
What Can We Do?” — presented by Warren Hagstrom

Discussion

Song: “Simple Gifts,” page 41 in Prairie Songbook, accompanied by Doleta Chapru

Introduction of Guests and Visitors
Prairie Announcements

Reprise: from the House Party