

Prairie Unitarian-Universalist Society
Madison, Wisconsin
March 26, 2000

Musical Prelude—Doleta Chapru
Welcome—Nancy Schraufnagel, President
Chalice Lighting

“To Make a Prairie,” music by Rachel Alexander
—the Prairie Choir, Barbara Park, Director

Joys and Sorrows

Childrens’ Poem: “I’m Nobody...,” read by Lisa Glueck, and a musical setting, composed and performed by Doleta Chapru

A Little Bit About Emily Dickinson—Warren Hagstrom Illustrated with some of her poetry, set to music

“The Sun Went Down” — Ernst Bacon (1944)
—Warren Hagstrom

“Why Do They Shut Me Out of Heaven?” —Doleta
Chapru (2000) —Susan Hagstrom

“My River Runs to Thee,” Ernst Bacon (1944)
—Rosemarie Lester

“Nature, the Gentlest Lover” —Aaron Copeland (1949)
—Barbara Park, Doleta Chapru, piano

Introduction of Guests and Visitors
Prairie Announcements

“To Make a Prairie”
“Is There Such a Thing as Day?”
—The Prairie Choir