

PRAIRIE UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST SOCIETY

Sunday, June 12, 2005

Welcome

Chalice Lighting and Opening Words -
Robin Proud

Moment of Silent Meditation

Song - How Can I Keep from Reading? *

Joys and Concerns

Summer Reading
Led by Rose Smith

Offering
Introduction of Guests & Visitors
Announcements

Song in Prairie Songbook
I Love to Tell the Stories *

Closing Words - Robin Proud

*stand as you are able

Announcements

Opportunities abound to work with youth as RE teacher or OWL leader. See Melissa Gjestvang-Lucky.

In Our Hands manuals for RE are in short supply. If you have any of these at home, for any grade, please return and let Melissa know.

Archivist Needed to collect and organize artifacts relating to the history of our society. See Mike Briggs or KK Anderson if interested.

Calendar

Monday, June 13. Reservations due for August 13 bus trip to Chicago Art Institute. $61 fee must be delivered to Pat Watkins.

Wednesday, June 15, 6:30 p.m. Midweek Meal @ Prairie.

Wednesday, June 15, 7:30 p.m. Board Meeting at Prairie

Friday, June 17, 5:30 p.m. Playreaders Annual Fish Dinner at Quivey's Grove, and one-act play at Pat Watkins' house. RSVP required.

Sunday, June 19, 10:00 a.m. Solstice Service at Picnic Point, led by Dorothy Krause, followed by potluck picnic.

June 23 - 27. UUA General Assembly in Forth Worth.

Sunday, June 26, 10:00 a.m. "And So, How Are the Children?" presented by Peggy Haack and Cindy Rudd.

Tuesday, June 28, 2:00 p.m. Prairie Elders meet at Oakwood West.