One Hundred Years

I'm fifteen for a moment / Caught in between ten and twenty and I'm just dreaming, / counting the ways to where you are.
I'm twenty-two for a moment / and she feels better than ever and we're on fire, / making our way back from Mars.
Fifteen, there's still time for you. / Time to buy and time to lose.
Fifteen. / There's never a wish better than this,
When you only got a hundred years to live.

I'm thirty-three for a moment. / I'm still the man,
but you see I'm a they. / A kid on the way, babe.
A family on my mind.

I'm forty-five for a moment. / The sea is high and I'm heading into a crisis, / chasing the years of my life.
Fifteen, there's still time for you.
Time to buy and time to lose yourself within a morning star.
Fifteen, I'm alright with you.
Fifteen. / There's never a wish better than this,
When you only got a hundred years to live.

How the time goes by. / Suddenly, you're wise.
Another blink of an eye, sixty-seven is gone.
The sun is getting high. / We're moving on...

I'm ninety-nine for a moment. / Dying for just another moment
and I'm just dreaming, / counting the ways to where you are.
Fifteen, there's still time for you. / Twenty-Two, I feel her, too.
Thirty-Three, you're on your way. / Every day's a new day...
Fifteen, there's still time for you. / Time to buy and time to choose.
~~Hey, fifteen, / there's never a wish better than this,~~
When you only got a hundred years to live.

Five For Fighting

Welcome to our Service

We are so glad you are here! Please stay afterwards for fellowship and coffee. Our service today was organized by Erin Bosch and Rachel Long. Our musicians were Barbara Park, the Prairie Choir, and Reuben Arnold. Thanks to all of them for their service.
