Prelude - "Butterfly," Grieg - Aileen Nettleton, pianist

Welcome - Mike Briggs, President of Prairie

Opening Words - Mike Briggs, President of Prairie, and the congregation

Be ours a religion
Which like sunshine goes everywhere,
Its temple all space,
Its shrine the good heart,
Its creed all truth,
Its ritual works of love.
(Theodore Parker, 1810-1860)

*Hymn - Prairie Song Book #14 - "How Can I Keep From Singing!"

Chalice Lighting - Mike Briggs, President of Prairie
Silent Meditation (one minute)

Story for All Ages - Mike Briggs

Song as children go downstairs [to melody of # 400, "Shalom Havayreem,"]

*Farewell, good friends... Farewell... Till we meet again...
Farewell...
(Sing each phrase twice.)*

Introduction of Guests and Visitors

Prairie Announcements. Additional announcements are in your order of service.

*Hymn - #107 - "The Spirit of This Church"

Closing Words

De noche iremos,
De noche que para encontrar la fuente,
Solo la sed nos alumbra,
Solo la sed nos alumbra.
(Author unknown)

*Hymn - #15 - "This Little Light of Mine"

*Stand as you are able.

Welcome to our service! We are glad you are here. Mike Briggs, President of Prairie, presided at today's service. Our accompanist was Aileen Nettleton, a long-time member and frequent accompanist. Mary Mullen, Program Committee Co-Chair, coordinated this service.

Please stay after the service for a potluck lunch. Following that, you can take part in a meeting of the Humanist Union of Madison, or (weather permitting) take a brief tour of the land that Prairie has bought for its new meeting house.

Announcements

How Can I Keep From Reading?

My life flows on in endless words above earth's lamentation
I hear the real but far-off hymn that hails a new creation.
Thru all the tumult & the strife I see those words I'm needing.
They sound an echo in my soul, how can I keep from reading?

What tho' the tempest loudly roars I know the truth it liveth,
What tho' the darkness round me close, words in the night it giveth.
No storm can shake my inmost calm while on that truth I'm feeding,
Since books have given me such joy, how can I keep from reading?

When tyrants tremble sick w/fear & see their death wounds bleeding
When friends rejoice both far & near, how can I keep from reading?
In prison cell & dungeon vile our thoughts to them are speeding
When friends by shame are undefiled, how can I keep from reading?

I lift my eyes, the cloud grows thin, I see the blue above it,
And day by day this pathway clears since I first learned to love it.
The peace of words restores my soul, a signpost ever leading,
All things are mine since I love books, how can I keep from reading?
