Announcements

Check the UUSC HotWire for current goings on at the 2007 General Assembly: www.uusc.org/blog/hotwire.html

Prairie Elders will meet Tuesday, June 26, 2:00-3:50 p.m., Nakoma Room, Heritage Oaks Building, Oakwood Village West. Come to discuss a book that inspired, motivated, influenced, or otherwise had special meaning to you in your adult life.

Volunteers are needed for the Prairie Retreat in September. If you would like to help with activities for children or adults, if you have an idea for a workshop, or if you can help as a host, directing people to rooms and supervising cleanup, please contact Aileen Nettleton or Robin Proud.

Summer Spree, a wonderfully fun weekend for Prairie kids and friends, will be held on Friday through Sunday, July 6-8, at the Friendship Center Camp in Dodgeville. Contact Rebecca Malke-Elighenti or Karen Deaton for more information and for volunteer opportunities.

Prairie Book Club will meet on July 8. For this meeting, each participant should read and present to the group a book of your choice on contemporary political thought.

Spanish Speakers will meet for potluck and conversation on Monday, July 16, at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Amy Schulz, 2304 South Syene Rd. Come early to enjoy the hot tub! For directions, call Amy at 273-2639. For rides or other questions, call Rosemary Dorney at 238-4382.

Midweek Meal is taking a midyear break and will resume in the fall.

Thanks to the people who helped make this service possible and memorable: our presenter Mary Somers who traveled to Venezuela with her husband Andy and several others as part of Global Exchange; musicians Doleta Chapru, Dan Proud, and Mary Mullen; presider Rachel Long; coordinator Mary Mullen, and all the rest of you who came and participated. Everyone who attends our services contributes to our community, and we thank you all.
