Prelude – Berceuse by Martin Cuellar - Madeline Long Arnold

Welcome – Rachel Long, President

Opening Words - From Generation to Generation

In a house which becomes a home, one hands down and another takes up the heritage of mind and heart, laughter and tears, musings and deeds. Love, like a carefully loaded ship, crosses the gulf between the generations. Therefore we do not neglect the ceremonies of our passage: when we wed, when we die, and when we are blessed with a child . . . we live, not by things, but by the meanings of things. It is needful to transmit the passwords from generation to generation.

Antoine de St. Exupery from Reading #649

*Hymn # 124 – Be That Guide

Chalice Lighting – Prairie RE Chalice Reading

We light this chalice to remind ourselves To treat other people kindly,
Because they are our brothers and our sisters,
To take good care of the earth
Because it is our home
And to live lives full of goodness and love Because that is how we will all become The best women and men we can be.

Closing Words - #562 - A Lifelong Sharing Love cannot remain by itself – it has no meaning.
Love has to be put into action and that action is service.
Whatever form we are,
able or disabled,
rich or poor,
it is not how much we do,
but how much love we put in the doing,
a lifelong sharing of love with others.
