Green Note: As a customer, you have enormous power to help launch the sustainable packaging movement. Many companies are now exploring ways to maximize non-toxic recyclable and compostable packaging content. Consider contacting the companies you purchase products from and ask them to switch to 100% sustainable packaging. Most companies really listen to their customers - you'll be surprised how many respond (and you may receive some great coupons for your trouble!) (globalstewards.org)

The Prairie Elders will meet on Tuesday, June 23, from 1:30pm to 3:30pm at Prairie. June's topic of discussion will be, "Eighty Is The New Forty?!" Contact Rosemary Dorney (238-4382) or Donna Murdoch (238-3802) or to arrange a ride.

The Humanist Union's next meeting will be held on Sunday, July 19. Please note the change of date. The meeting will start with a potluck lunch at 11:45, followed by a presentation by Andy Somers about Ireland called "A Terrible Beauty is Born."

Mark your calendars! The annual joint service with the Free Congregation of Sauk County will be held on Sunday, July 26, at Park Hall, the Free Congregation's beautiful meeting house in Sauk City. There will be a picnic afterward! (A viewing of this year's Ware Lecture by Cornell West will be held in Prairie's Meeting House for those who can't attend the service in Sauk City.)

Prairie UU Society Bond of Union

We, the members of Prairie, wish to associate ourselves together in a religious community which affirms that we share a common humanity, that we need one another, and that our futures are inescapably bound together. Together we would expand our intellectual horizons, enrich our sensory experiences, and deepen our emotional sensitivities. We would sharpen our ethical awareness and broaden our sense of social responsibility. We would stand tall in our quest for integrity of life, yet not at others' expense. As the prairie stretches out until it becomes one with the sky, let us reach out to touch and be one with the natural world, and with one another.

Principles of the Unitarian Universalist Association of Congregations

We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, covenant to affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Next week's service:

“A Talk with Rev. Olympia Brown”
with Rose Stephens
