“Revolt, Resist, Rejoice”
by Rev. Sandra Ingham

July 30, 2017

Announcements

Order of Service

“Not God but life, more life, a larger, richer, more satisfying life, is in the last analysis the end of religion. The love of life, at any and every level of development, is the religious impulse.” – William James Prelude: Performed by Mike Briggs.

Welcome and Announcements: Rev. Sandra Ingham

Opening Words: by Mother Teresa.

Opening Hymn #300 (SLT): “With Heart and Mind”

Chalice Lighting

Story for All Ages: Butterflies Under Our Hats, by Sandy Eisenberg Sasso.

Children’s Recessional: by Joyce Poley

*As you go on your way, may you be filled with gladness.
Go in joy, go in joy!
May fortune bless your day with peace and loving kindness.
Go in love, go in love.*

Joys and Concerns

Silent Meditation

Hymn #86: “Blessed Spirit of My Life”

Reading: “More Than a Cup of Soup,” by Rev. Kathleen McTigue.

Reflections: “Revolt, Resist, Rejoice,” by Rev. Sandra Ingham.

Congregational Response

Offering and Offertory

We will share our offering with the Allied Wellness Center.

Introduction of Guests and Visitors

Closing Hymn #144: “Now Is the Time Approaching”

Closing Words: by Kenneth Collier.

Greet Your Neighbor

*Please stand as you are able.

Green Note: Wait...what happened to the chairs? We’ve purchased new ones! We’ve donated the old chairs to Habitat for Humanity’s ReStore of Dane County. The replacements will be arriving in a few weeks.

We will share our July collections with the Allied Wellness Center. We will share our August offerings with Simpson Street Free Press,.

Prairie is 50 years old! Everyone is invited to a party on Saturday, September 16. More details to come!

The Committee on Ministry will be holding a Conversation and Active Listening Time after the service today. Questions to think about for this discussion are: “Who are we? What do we believe? What do we stand for? Where are we going?” This will also be a time to offer Rev. Sandy feedback as part of her ongoing evaluation.

Tony and Terri Prudlo want you to join them in celebrating the joy of having found the right life partner, together since August 7, 1977. Lunch will be prepared by refugee women from Open Doors for Refugees – with music and dancing. RSVP to Aileen Nettleton at aanett@sbcglobal.net or call her at 238-6053 so we will know how much food to prepare.

This afternoon at 4pm Tami Fleming of Friends of State Street Families will come to Prairie to answer questions about installing lockers for homeless folks on Prairie’s property. Please join us and invite any Prairie neighbors you know.

Prairie UU Society Bond of Union

We, the members of Prairie, wish to associate ourselves together in a religious community which affirms that we share a common humanity, that we need one another, and that our futures are inescapably bound together. Together we would expand our intellectual horizons, enrich our sensory experiences, and deepen our emotional sensitivities. We would sharpen our ethical awareness and broaden our sense of social responsibility. We would stand tall in our quest for integrity of life, yet not at others' expense. As the prairie stretches out until it becomes one with the sky, let us reach out to touch and be one with the natural world, and with one another.

Principles of the Unitarian Universalist Association of Congregations

We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, covenant to affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Next week's service:

"My Source, Mark Twain," by Penny Eiler.
