Together we would expand our intellectual horizons, enrich our sensory experiences, and deepen our emotional sensitivities. We would sharpen our ethical awareness and broaden our sense of social responsibility. We would stand tall in our quest for integrity of life, yet not at others' expense. As the prairie stretches out until it becomes one with the sky, let us reach out to touch and be one with the natural world, and with one another.

Upcoming Events

Monday Prairie Study Group 7pm (2nd & 4th Mondays)

We'll finalize our discussion of the 2021 UU Common Read "Breathe - A Letter to My Sons" by Imani Perry. Breathe reflects on race, racism, and the hope that one's child will be wholly known and valued by society. It is "an unforgettable lesson in Black resistance and resilience."

Virtual Dungeons and Dragons (advanced group) (every Friday) 4:30pm

This group is open to both Prairie members and non-members who have DND experience and know how to create a character, best for ages 12 & up. You can start in the middle of an adventure or email the Dungeon Master (DM) Harlan.d.s512 (at) gmail.com if you want to know when a new adventure is starting. Bring a character, paper, pencil, and physical or virtual dice. Feel free come to the Zoom and let the group know you're just there to hang. You can give moral support to the players or just listen to/watch the quest unfold.

Sunday Service: "Disability Dissemination During the Pandemic" by Mitchell Hagopian 5/2 10am

As Wisconsin grappled with potential resource shortages as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic it turned to its State Disaster Medical Advisory Committee and its subcommittees to help the Department of Health Services develop ethical principles and priority groups for receipt of vaccine and therapeutics. The exercise exposed the problems people with disabilities face when it comes to accessing medical care and demonstrated the continuing need for advocacy in order to assure equal access.
