Sunday Services at 10:30 a.m. at the YWCA, 31 N. Pinkney St.

May 10 - "Where Are Our Priorities?"

A presentation of several different points of view about the direction in which an individual might work hardest to try to understand and affect some of the problems we have discussed in recent months.

Members of panel: Rachel Siegfried, Pete Guest, Steven Friedman (representing Welfare Rights, Concerned Demographers, Urban Planners)

May 17 - "Good" - Bob Koehl

A continuation of the theme from May beauty, truth, and good be sung

Bob Koehl will conduct an experimental and participation-type program concerned with "good", including a skit with two endings and a parade with "icons".

May 24 - Second Annual "Go Fly a Kite" Sunday - led by Alan and Aileen Nettleton

Kite flying at the Prairie site, corner of Gammon and Raymond Roads, at 10:30 a.m. Bring your kite, let down your hair and join the fun. Awards will be given as follows:

Junior Division: (kite flyers through junior high)
- Smallest
- Largest
- Most unique shape
- Most decorative
- Highest flying
- Best box kite

To encourage adult participation, the following awards will be made:

Adult Division: (kite flyers from high school on)
- Most absurd flying object
- Most unique attempt at getting an object to fly
- Kite bearing most thoughtful message

Preference will be given to homemade kites in both divisions. A family picnic lunch will conclude the activities, BYOB (Bring your own basket). In case of rain we will meet at the Y for family activities.

May 31 - Our Last Program of the Year - to be announced

HAPPY BIRTHDAY GLENN TURNER

A number of us, remembering that it's been a year since we celebrated Glenn Turner's 80th birthday, wondered how he was and where he has been keeping himself. We called and he is fine but uses Sunday morning to catch up on his correspondence. Esperanto still keeps him busy!

Mother's Day Special: Celebrate by getting away from it all! Weather permitting, let's spend this day out-of-doors, eat without cooking your car and/or mine. Call 233-7383, Lilo Koehl.
HUGE STEP FORWARD FOR SOCIETY

We are delighted that Dave Meyer will be joining us as our part-time minister in September. This was decided at the parish meeting last Saturday night. Dave is in his second year of studies at Meadville, and he will be continuing his program there even though he and his wife Pat will be living here in Madison next year. They will be spending the summer directing the UNISTAR camp in Minnesota.

Board Meeting: There will be a board meeting Tuesday, May 12, at 8:00 p.m. at the home of Roland Parrish, 302 Glenway.

ANNUAL PARISH MEETING

The annual parish meeting for electing new officers of the Society will be held on Saturday, May 23 at 8:00 p.m. at the Franks', 5609 Kroncke Dr. It will be a combined business and social meeting. Following are the nomination of the Nominating Committee:

President: Joan Burns
Vice-President: Jack Birong
Secretary: Mary Jane Woerpel
Treasurer: Roland Parrish
Religious Education: Karen Peters
Program: Clark Edwards
Finance: TedClark
Ministerial Relations: John Miller
Planning: Hermione Davidson
Social Action: Steven Friedmann (board position) and Ellie Friedman

Nominations will be called for from the floor according to the By-laws.

The following By-law changes have been proposed for consideration at the Annual Meeting on May 23:

Article VII, Section 3A. Publicity. The chairman shall be appointed by the Board and he shall form a committee responsible for placing public announcements, notices, and articles concerning the purposes of the Society, its meetings, its personnel, etc. It should see that newspapers carry the time and place of Sunday morning services. Further, it should seek, from time to time, to have published such articles or advertisements as would invite others who seek a liberal religious organization to become acquainted with the Society.

Article VII, Section 8. Membership. This committee shall invite persons known to be interested in the church to enter into formal relationship. It should build up a list of prospective members, inviting them periodically to join. It shall keep an up-to-date list of Active Members, Members and Friends of the Society, such list to be provided as occasion demands to those Active Members who have need of it. The chairman shall be appointed by the Board.

Article VII, Section 8A. Hospitality. This committee shall provide for the hospitality of the Sunday morning services, such as the making and serving of coffee. It shall provide for seating arrangements, necessary items of furniture, and in general the comfort of persons at Sunday services. Moreover, the committee seeks to greet persons attending meetings and generate an atmosphere of friendliness and fellowship. It takes special care to greet visitors and new members and to introduce the widely to other members. The committee also is alert to maintain contact with members who are sick or in difficulty, informing the minister of unusual circumstances. It encourages social intercourse among members by planning, periodically, family parties and entertainment. The chairman shall be appointed by the Board.

Article VII, Section 10. Denominational Affairs. This committee shall maintain regular relations with all existing Unitarian-Universalist organizations. The chairman shall be appointed by the Board.