AN OPEN LETTER TO RACHEL SIEGFRIED:

When the last members of the last clean-up detail bid farewell to one another in back of the dining hall at Upham Woods, a great sigh of relief escaped Rachel's lips. It became clear to me then, that while most of us enjoyed a truly blissful weekend, there were others who had worried and worked to make it so!!

Dear Rachel (and all others who helped plan and create U.W. (Upham Woods) 1970). I hope I can speak for most of the enthusiastic participants of the last weekend when once more I thank you truly for a retreat away from our daily routine, for a chance to spend time with one another in restful surroundings and most of all with the hope that you have started a yearly tradition. Let's hope we can make next year's "retreat" as beautiful for you

P.S. To all who for one reason or another missed out on coming to Upham Woods:
Don't miss it next time 'round!
