EXTRA CLOTHING, FURNITURE, HOUSEHOLD ITEMS NEEDED

The Community Emergency Group is a non-sectarian city-wide organization established two years ago for the purpose of getting emergency help to any needy person in Madison. This help might be clothing, a ride to a doctor's appointment, furniture, household repairs, a tutor, or financial help in some instances.

Volunteers from many Madison religious groups work with the Community Emergency Group which was organized and continues to be directed by Robert Shaw.

This Emergency Group staffs and supplies used clothing in good repair to two clothing exchanges, one at 1003 Jenifer on the East side and at Calvary Methodist Church on the South side. It also tries to collect used furniture and household items and distributes them to persons in need.

The Group needs the help of all Madison to keep the clothing and furniture exchange going. Currently there are three small boys who are without proper school clothing, and the Clothing Exchanges have no boys' items.

USED CLOTHING AND FURNITURE AND FUNDS ARE ALWAYS NEEDED BY THE COMMUNITY EMERGENCY GROUP.

All items can be dropped off at St. Andrew's Church. Furniture can be picked up---call Avis Parrish, 238-1725 or Sydney Mannering at 238-2829.

A special request: Portable sewing machine to be used as loan-out at Exchange.
