10 a.m. Sunday, the 24th: "Are There Limits to Growth?" Charlie Davidson will conduct a program based on the predictions about the future of the world's resources made by an international group of scholars and businessmen. Recommended reading: The Limits to Growth by Donella Meadows, et al.

2 p.m. Sunday, the 24th: Meet at Portal Foster Center for an afternoon outing with Dan Willard. Destination, unknown. Show up and help decide where to hike, canoe, wander, saunter, grub in the good earth. Each Sunday afternoon until the weather turns foul, Dan will conduct some sort of nature feast.

7:30 p.m. Monday, the 25th: Organic gardening and other points of view--- with Barbara Willard. Every Monday night at this time Barbara will share her ideas, suggestions, experiences with others about a practical, sane approach to growing your own foods. Meet at the Willards' home--- 2217 West Lawn Ave.

NO SUNDAY MEETING OCTOBER 1 --- COME TO CAMP ANOKIJIG

"Insight to the Outside" is the theme of the annual Prairie Society weekend retreat. Dan and Barbara Willard will conduct the program. They explain that they want to give the positive reasons why people are interested in ecology. They want to help others to develop sensitivity to what's natural, to help people "slow down to a natural pace."

Camp Anokijig is located in Sheboygan County, five miles north of Plymouth, Wisconsin. More than 300 acres of woodlands surrounding a 30-40 acre section of Elkhart Lake. Huge main recreation and dining building, several sleeping lodges, and plenty of standing tents. Camp Anokijig is a 2½ hour drive from Madison (see map posted Sunday on Bulletin board).

So that as many people as possible will come, scholarships to defray overall costs will be available. Dan Willard will disburse funds. Cost for the weekend: $6.25 per family unit for housing, plus $1.25 per person per meal. Five meals will be served: three Saturday, two Sunday. As examples: a single person will pay $6.25 plus $6.25 for a total of $12.50 for the weekend; for a family of four, the cost will be $6.25 for housing and $25.00 for food, for a total of $31.25.

Bring yourself, family, snacks for Friday night, towels, sheets and blankets, and ye old tooth brush. Everything else will be provided.
