

UPCOMING EVENTS:

- March 18, Sunday, 10 a.m. "Roots for Heroes" Betsy Roberts. The Appalachian heritage examined as a foundation for being. Can we program attitudes? Let's reason together...at Portal Foster Center.
- March 18, Sunday, 7 to 10 p.m. An adult discussion group focused on Human Sexuality will be held Sunday evenings beginning March 18 at First Society, 900 University Bay Drive. The sessions are scheduled to continue for 6 to 8 weeks. Led by John Zahn and Karen Anderson, the program will focus on defining one's sexuality and ways to achieve genuine intimacy. Enrollment is limited to 12 persons. If interested call JZ at 238-0878 or KA at 255-3596.
- March 22, Thursday, 7 p.m. Program committee meeting at Mark McElreath's: 309 Eugenia.
- March 25, Sunday, 10 a.m. "Celebration: The Forms and Traditions of the Dance" by Hermine Davidson. Demonstrations with interpretive explanations of the varieties of bodily expression known as the dance: Every little movement has a meaning all its own," at Portal Foster Center.
- *April 1, Sunday, 10 a.m. "Fantasy, Reality, and Religion" by Terri Laurence. A Prairie Happening! at Portal Foster Center.
- *Puzzle and game exchange operated by Chuck and Lois Young.

