Vol. 9 No. 14

May 10, 1973

Upcoming Events:

May 11-Friday, 8:30 p.m.---Show and Tell Camera group will meet out at Goose Pond this Friday at Evelyn Werner's house. Super 8 nature movies and nature slides will be shown. Everyone is invited to come. Prairie burning and bird hikes will be included in the pictures.

Directions to Goose Pond:

Head North on Highway 51. About 20 miles from Square turn left on Country Trunk K. Turn right on Gosse Pond Road. Go about a block and a half and watch for refuge sign. Turn left on access road. It's the only house on the road. Call Eve Werner if any questions at 635-4174.

May 13-Sunday 10 a.m.---Program at Portal Foster entitled "Feeling and Intelligence" led by Bob Koehl and Vivian Meyer. The Blazing Sun Rock Band will make an appearance.

May 13-Sunday 8 p.m.---The annual Prairie Parish Meeting is to be held on Sunday May 13, 8 p.m. at the PFC. Election of officers, consideration of Lay Ministers and director of R.E. for next year, amendment of by laws, voting on "Bond of Union," etc.

May 18-Friday 8 p.m.---First Society invites all Prairie members to attend a Folk and Song Fest at their church.

May 20-Sunday 10 a.m.---The last meeting of the year. "Affirmation-Confirmation." The Willards assisted by Bob Koehl will lead a celebration of Prairie renewal on the Prairie site (unless it rains)*

*Meeting at Portal Foster Center in case of rain.

Directions to the Prairie site:

Take Whitney Way south to Raymond Road. Turn right on Raymond Road, proceeding one mile west to point where Raymond Road forks southwest (intersection with Gammon Road). Turn into farmyard on right before intersection and proceed up the hill to summit.

Roland Parrish and Al Nettleton are running against each other at the Parish meeting election.

This is the last newsletter of the year so don't expect anything else 'til next fall. Good bye until we meet again!
