PRAIRIE FIRE

... As the prairie stretches out until it becomes one with the sky, let us reach out to touch and be one with the natural world and with one another.

From our Bond of Union.

The Prairie Fire is the newsletter of Prairie Unitarian Universalist Society and is published semi-monthly.

The two most recent issues may be seen on Prairie’s Web site at http://www.prairie.madison.uua.org

DETAILS OF UPCOMING EVENTS

Sunday, July 13
A report from General Assembly that took place in June in Boston, will be led by Sara Lord. This is Sara’s first trip to general assembly and she will share her experiences of what it was like. She will be assisted by Nancy Schraufnagel and Pat Watkins, veterans to GA, who will also give us information on what happened this year.

Sunday, July 20
Fran Zell’s service will deal with her first attempt to write fiction about 20 years ago and how it changed her life and politics. She would also bring in first fiction of a couple of other people. The service will also deal with the social impact of writing, as her first book (never published) was about an Iranian in Chicago during the hostage crisis of the early 80's.

Fran Zell is a writer, teacher and friend of Prairie. Her first book of fiction, The Marcy Stories, won the 2002 Banta Award from the Wisconsin Library Association. Many Prairie people will remember her musical play, "Lavender Rose," from its Madison staging in 2000. She also writes poetry and essays. She is a former feature writer and restaurant critic for the Chicago Tribune. Fran has lived in Madison since 1992.

Sunday, July 27
Janesville UU will join Prairie, James Reeb, First Society and Sauk City to share a service at Sauk City. The details are going to be worked out on July 7th, after this Prairie Fire deadline, so the specifics will be given at the next two Sunday services as well as on the prairienews email. If you would like more information you may call Mary Somers at 276-8397.

OUR SOCIETY

IMPORTANT!!! Long Range Planning Report
Submitted by Barbara Park, Committee Chair

On July 20th, there will be a pot-luck after the morning program followed by a report from the Long Range Planning Committee on their progress in searching for a new building. The committee will bring everyone up to date on the search and review a summary of features that members have already suggested. Child care will be available.

Pledge Reminder
Submitted by the Finance Committee

You may take a vacation from Prairie in the summer, but our bills don't!! Thanks to all who are keeping right on target with your pledges, and a reminder to others to mail your checks to Prairie UU Society, Attn: Susan Hagstrom, 2010 Whenona Drive, Madison, WI, 53711.

Memorial Service for John Diehl
Submitted by Mary Lou Diehl & Mary Somers

John M. Diehl, died on June 27. A memorial service will be held at 12 noon, Saturday, July 12, at the Lower Meeting House of the First Unitarian Society. (Some of the old-time Prairie folks will remember John's and my three "kids"—John Vogel Diehl, Tim Diehl, and Alicia Diehl. They, of course will all be there.)

Dedicate Hymnals

In August we will present the 15 new UU hymnals, "Singing in the Living Tradition." On the inside cover of each there will be a bookplate with the Prairie Bond of Union and space for a short dedication, such as "for the memory of John Lennon from Yoko," or "from Anonymous," or (what Doleta and I did) "An die Musik..." If you wish to make a dedication, send it to Orange Schroeder, e-mail at appelsin@aol.com or by mail to her at 1909 West Lawn Ave, Madison 53711. AND send a check for $28 to the Prairie Treasurer, Susan Hagstrom, in the collection plate or to her at 916 Shorewood Blvd., Madison, 53705. LAST CHANCE!

Recent Programs
Submitted by Warren Hagstrom

Prairie is so wonderful. Our members and friends introduce us to people and ideas that we would never encounter in the ordinary course of things.

On June 15, Rev. Gordon Gibson related experiences he and other UUs in the South had in the civil rights movement, talking about "Small Acts of Great Courage." He had a great preaching style. Rev. Gibson was introduced to us by Catherine and Larry Mandt, who invited him to Madison to celebrate the marriage of their daughter.

On June 22, there were 21 of us at Picnic Point to celebrate the solstice. Dan Proud and his son Martin led us in the Beatle's "Here Comes the Sun." Sun symbols, ranging from Larry Nahlik's mirror-inlaid Thai carving to a pendant of a Hindu sungod, glistening under the magnificent canopy of swaying leaves. And, in one of many Prairie serendipitous events, Jean Matos invited a Yoga visitor she met while directing members to our site from the base of the point. The visitor played a resonant Eastern gong, which was marvelously sensual and spiritual.

John Lewis continued the theme with his program on June 29 about "Nature and Spirituality in Modern and Ancient Religions." Emphasizing our oneness with the natural world, John linked ideas from ecological thinkers to UU theologians (see the article about process theology in the latest UU World). His talk was enhanced by slides of ancient drawings and peaceful nature scenes. John introduced us to Tom List, who played his beautiful American Indian flute (and gave something like a twenty minute seminar on the instrument following the service).

New Office Administrator

Dan and Robin Proud will jointly handle the Prairie Fire and Office Administrator responsibilities. Please direct all future articles, as well as any questions and concerns to them. They may be reached at prouds@tds.net and 661-0776.

For your Consideration

Thank You

Thanks to all you good Prairie folk for allowing me to work with you the past year and a half. It was good to work for and with you, in a place that was not my own but one you generously shared with me.

I wish you all good things as you sort through your plans for the future. I will look forward to bumping into some of you at General Assembly in the years ahead.

The Low Road
By Marge Piercy

What can they do to you? Whatever they want. They can set you up, they can bust you, they can break your fingers, they can burn your brain with electricity, blur you with drugs till you can’t walk, can’t remember, they can take your child, wall up your lover. They can do anything you can’t stop them from doing. How can you stop them? Alone, you can fight, you can refuse, you can take what revenge you can but they roll over you.

But two people fighting back to back can cut through a mob, a snake-dancing file can break a cordon, an army can meet an army.

Two people can keep each other sane, can give support, conviction, love, massage, hope, sex. Three people are a delegation, a committee, a wedge. With four you can play bridge and start an organization. With six you can rent a whole house, eat pie for dinner with no seconds, and hold a fund raising party. A dozzen make a demonstration. A hundred fill a hall. A thousand have solidarity and your own newsletter; ten thousand, power and your own paper; a hundred thousand, your own media; ten million, your own country.

It goes on one at a time, it starts when you care to act, it starts when you do it again after they said no, it starts when you say We and know who you mean, and each day you mean one more.
Shaarei Shamayim Calendar
2nd, 3rd & 4th Sat 9am–2pm. Upcoming Religious Services will be on July 14, 21 & 28.
