DETAILS OF COMING EVENTS

Sunday, October 24

Bob Lawrence, in the second of his series on Islam, poses the question: "Have there ever been examples of tolerant, creative, or progressive Islamic civilizations?" The talk will discuss Medieval Spain and Baghdad, and point to these communities as probable seeds for the Renaissance in Europe.

Sunday, October 31

Prairie's annual Day of the Dead Celebration will be led by Orange Schroeder. You are invited to bring a photograph or other remembrance of a family member or friend who has passed away, and to say a few words. Those who don't wish to speak may light a candle in memory of a loved one.

Friday, October 22, is the Hindu holiday Dassehra, or Vijay Dasami, celebrating the victory of Good over Evil, of Lord Rama over the demon Ravan, and the Goddess Durga over a demon. It follows the 9-day celebration of Navaratri (nine nights) and Durga Puja, when other goddesses also are worshipped.

Saturday, November 6

An evening of music with Susan Conant and friends begins at 7:00 p.m. at the home of Norma and Mike Briggs. The musician guests, from the UU Society of Geneva, Ill., will present the Sunday service the next day at Prairie and would like to take fullest advantage of their time here and invite the Prairie membership's participation. Desserts are welcome.

Sunday, November 7

A group of eight musicians from Geneva, Illinois presents musical selections and readings that encourage the congregation to meditate, celebrate, and "make a joyful noise" together. Their service will end up with everyone up on their feet and fully engaged. They will sing, add harmony, instrumentals, movement and percussion "to really make the place vibrate." Susan Conant, a friend of Michael and Norma Briggs, will lead.

DENOMINATIONAL AFFAIRS

BILL SCHULZ SPEAKS IN MADISON

The Rev. William Schulz, Executive Director of Amnesty International USA, will visit Madison on October 23–24, 2004.

Having recently returned from an international, non-governmental mission to Darfur, Sudan, Schulz will share his observations at the Anderson Auditorium on the Edgewood College campus on Saturday October 23, at 7:00 p.m. His talk also will touch on the danger facing human rights in the post-9/11 era. There is no charge for the event.

In 2003, Schulz wrote, Tainted Legacy: 9/11 and the Ruin of Human Rights. The New York Review of Books has described Schulz as the person who "has done more than anyone else in the American human rights movement to make human rights issues known in the United States." Tainted Legacy furthers that reputation by offering a clear road map to a world in which human rights and national security are not mutually exclusive.

The Rev. Schulz will also serve as a speaker for the national conference on criminal justice and prison reform for Young Adult Unitarian Universalists and members of the Unitarian Universalist campus ministry occurring at First Unitarian Society.

You can find information about this conference at: <http://www.fusmadison.org/prisonreform.shtml>

RELIEF TO VICTIMS OF CRISIS IN SUDAN

The government of Sudan has been accused of carrying out a systematic and deliberate campaign of "ethnic cleansing" against the people of Darfur in the western part of Sudan. Since February 2003, more than 50,000 lives have been lost and more than two million people have been displaced. Hundreds of thousands of refugees have fled to neighboring Chad, and others remain internally displaced in Darfur.

The United Nations has described this human travesty as "the world's greatest humanitarian disaster." While aid organizations have been diligent in providing relief to refugees and displaced persons, the overwhelming requirements for such an effort have left certain populations out of reach. There is an urgent need for support to help save the lives of millions of people who are deeply affected by this genocide.

UUSC is accepting contributions to provide aid to the victims of the crisis. All donations to the Darfur Relief Fund will be forwarded to the nonprofit organizations listed below that are working in Darfur to provide humanitarian relief. Although the UUSC is not currently working in Sudan, the choice reflects UUSC's history of working with the poor in that country.

To contribute to the relief effort in Darfur, please make your check payable to Darfur Relief Fund and mail it to:

Darfur Relief Fund
Unitarian Universalist Service Committee
P.O. Box 845259
Boston, MA 02284-5259

You also can donate online through this Web site: www.uusc.org/programs/support_darfur.html.

Nonprofit organizations involved:

Darfur Peace and Development works in coordination with 34 grassroots organizations in Sudan and Chad to restore peace and achieve sustainable development and coexistence in the Darfur region of Western Sudan. Relief efforts include transportation and distribution programs for aid and medical assistance through schools, churches, masjids, and other organizations in the affected area.

Action by Churches Together (ACT)

International and Caritas International have put together a Darfur emergency response to continue the work of ACT members and partners Norwegian Church Aid, the Sudan Council of Churches, Sudan Development Organization and Sudanaid of the Sudan Council of Churches. They will provide shelter, water, sanitation, and basic sleeping and kitchen materials. They will also provide supplementary food to 50,000 children under the age of 5 and education for school-aged children and women rape victims.

SOCIAL ACTION

INTERFAITH HOSPITALITY NETWORK BULLETIN

The lower your income, the less likely you are to vote. Did you know that IHN helps homeless and low-income people learn about political participation?

IHN sponsors the TAG group, a political advocacy group for people who have been homeless and/or lived in low-income housing. TAG teaches these community members how to advocate for themselves regarding homelessness and affordable housing issues. One member of TAG became so inspired to action that she organized a voter registration meeting for the group. Another member, who has never voted, got all dressed up in her "Sunday best" for the meeting and expressed her pride that she will cast her first vote for president this fall – at the age of 55.
