DETAILS OF COMING PROGRAMS

Sunday, July 24

A highlight of the year for many UUs is attending the Unitarian Universalist General Assembly (GA), the continent-wide annual conference held this year in warm Ft. Worth, Tex. The informative and inspiring workshops and lectures, the plenary sessions during which delegates vote on social action issues and hear about "breakthrough congregations," the services, the exhibit hall, and the city in which the GA is held make each GA a thrilling experience. Come hear what you missed from Sarah Lord, Patty Stockdale and Mary Mullen.

Sunday, July 31

The Free Congregation of Sauk County hosts the annual joint meeting of the UU Congregations of south and west Wisconsin each summer. This year the topic is "How Can UU Congregations Be a Voice of Reason in Today's World?" Presenters will be John Powell (First Unitarian Society), Mike Briggs (Prairie UU), Dave Ramsdell (Unitarian Congregation of Rock County, Janesville), Chris Limburg (James Reeb UUC), and the Rev. Jody Whelden (Free Congregation of Sauk County).

NEXT PRAIRIE FIRE DEADLINE: SUNDAY, AUG. 7

A picnic potluck will follow the service. Everyone is also invited to tour the Freie Gemeinde Library Collection, which contains books, periodicals, music, photographs, and personal memorabilia dating back to 1852.

Directions: Take Hwy. 12 west to Sauk City. At the first light after the bridge, turn right on Water Street. Go 3 blocks and turn left on Polk Street. Go 3 blocks.

Sunday, August 7

Mike Briggs and Dan Proud conclude their 3-part lay ministry series on the power and inspiration of folk music with an intergenerational and participative program of folk songs and stories. If you can play the comb, the spoons, or other homemade instruments, bring them to Prairie! Rated G (Good for Kids as well as Adults).

OUR SOCIETY

SPECIAL PARISH MEETING AUGUST 14

The congregation will meet briefly following the Sunday program on August 14 to vote on the following proposed changes to the Society bylaws:

1. BE IT RESOLVED, that Article V G of the Bylaws be amended as follows:

G. The Annual Meeting of the Society shall be held each year in April, at such time and place as shall be fixed by the Executive Board. The principal business shall be the election of officers, and of the members of the Committee on Committees, and if the professional ministry option of Article VIII is in effect, chairperson of the Ministerial Relations Committee.

2. BE IT RESOLVED, that Article VII [intro] of the Bylaws be amended as follows:

The President shall be a nonvoting ex officio member of all standing committees except the Committee on Committees. The minister shall be a nonvoting ex officio member of all standing committees except the Ministerial Relations Committee Committee on Ministry and the Committee on Committees.

3. BE IT RESOLVED, that Article VII B 2 of the Bylaws be repealed and re-created as follows:

2. Committee on Ministry

a. The purpose of the Committee on Ministry is to enhance the quality of shared ministry within the congregation, if the congregation selects a professional minister. The committee consists of three members who serve staggered three-year terms that begin on January 1. The members are appointed by the executive board upon consultation with the professional minister. The committee elects its own chair.

b. The committee advises and evaluates the professional minister. It facilitates shared ministry by explaining the role, expectations, and contract of the ordained minister to the congregation and by helping to make the professional minister aware of any possible concerns arising in regard to shared ministry within the congregation. The committee submits a formal report of the professional minister's performance, including salary recommendations, to the board by October 1 of each year. Due to the nature of its responsibilities, the committee's meetings are normally closed, but members of the congregation are encouraged to provide comments on the successes and limitations of shared ministry to the committee members. The committee is not intended to replace direct discourse between the professional minister and the membership.

c. If there is no professional minister, the committee is dissolved. If a new professional minister is selected, the existing committee is dissolved and a new committee is appointed.

4. BE IT RESOLVED, that Article VII A 3 of the Bylaws be amended as follows:

3. Once selected for the position, the minister need not be reelected yearly, but a review of his/her the minister's tenure shall be undertaken at least every three years by the Ministerial Relations Committee Committee on Ministry.

MAGGIE SIEGFRIED SINGS AGAIN

Our own Maggie Siegfried regularly performs in the jazz-surf-classic country group, Catfish and Costello. You can catch the Catfish at the Mill Street Grill in Cambridge from 6 to 9 p.m. on three upcoming Saturdays: July 23, August 13, and August 20.

TREATS AT THE PRAIRIE RETREAT

This year's annual retreat at Bethel Horizons (September 16–18) always features an abundance of treats, edible and nonedible. The nonedible treats you can count on include a nature walk, workshops and discussions, the Saturday night variety show, games, and an outstanding Sunday service. A couple treats this year are innovations: a book sale and the UU trivia game.

- Used Book Extravaganza (social action fundraiser). Now is the time to clean out those bookcases! We're looking for donations of fiction, nonfiction, children's books, softcover or hard. Bring donations to Prairie or to the retreat, or call Corrine Hornbeck (274-3895) if you need to schedule a pickup. We'll have a big book sale at the retreat.
- UU Team Trivia Challenge. About 30 people participated in this trivia game on July 10 at Prairie. We're offering it again at the retreat for those who missed the fun. Players move around 6 different stations, identifying pictures of famous UU people, places, and symbols. There are 61 answers and 7 extra credit points for deducing connections between some of the celebrities. The winning team on July 10 chalked up 52 points, and every team got at least 40 points.

ARCHIVIST NEEDED

Prairie is currently without an archivist, and records keep propagating! If you are interested in collecting and organizing artifacts that will make up the history of our Society, please contact Mike Briggs (835-0914) or K.K. Anderson (255-3596).

PRAIRIE ELDERS PLAN JULY 26 MEETING

Prairie Elders meets Tuesday, July 26, at 2:00 p.m. in the second floor activity room of the Oaks Building at Oakwood Village West. Latecomers always welcome. If convenient, please bring a few cookies, fruit, cheese, crackers, etc. Beverages will be furnished.

Discussion Topic: "Fun Times and Diversions: What do we do for enjoyment?" Play Scrabble, work out, romp with grandchildren, watch classic movies, feed birds, quietly sit with friends? Come share those things that give you pleasure.

Those who wish may bring a small item for a mystery bag, something people are unlikely to guess ---like a tool for removing clay from turkeys' feet. During the discussion everybody will have a chance to examine and guess the bag's contents. Mystery items will be displayed and identified toward the end of the meeting.

Parking lots are again available along the driveway to the Oaks Building. For additional parking, follow the entry road to the top of the hill and turn right. Ask a receptionist in one of the buildings for the best way to walk back. People unable to walk that distance should be dropped off at the Oaks.

Newcomers who need directions or further information, please call Donna Murdoch 260-8551, Rosemary Dorney 238-4382, or Doleta Chapru 238-4970.

BOOK CLUB PLANS NEXT TWO MEETINGS

The Prairie Book Club announces its next two meetings:

Sunday, August 14, *Year of Wonders by Geraldine Brooks. This is a novel set in 1655 in a small village in England at the time of the Black Plague. It is based on the real village that voluntarily decided to quarantine itself when hit by the Plague. The theme is the conflict between God and Nature (or religion and science). For an excellent discussion of the theme, an interview with the author, and a discussion guide, go to http://www.penguinputnam.com/static/rguides/us/year\_of\_wonders.html.

Saturday, September 17, *The Kite Runner by Khaled Hosseini; discussion at the annual Prairie retreat. This is a novel about a privileged boy of Afghanistan who emigrates to the United States to bury the memory of a tragic event involving his good friend who is his servant's son. Success and love in his new country isn't enough to make him forget, and he returns to Afghanistan to try to make things right. The author was born in Kabul and his family emigrated to the U.S. in 1980. For more details about the story and a study guide, consult http://www.penguinputnam.com/static/rguides/us/kite\_runner.html.
