NOTES FROM ALL OVER!

RE
needs grocery bags and leftover
cardboard pieces for projects.
Any donations would be nice.

NOTE
The Board is negotiating the Colby Street Lease with Woodland Montessori School and formal Prairie Board approval, and the official signing should happen in less than a week.

RE
extends a special thanks to Avis for the use of her cabin in Blue Mounds for the RE retreat.
We had a wonderful time getting away from it all, sharing songs, storytelling, and ideas for teaching, in the peaceful woods. The storytelling was particularly appropriate for the K-2 curriculum, The Adventures of Godsfolk, and was ably led by Rose Smith and Gretchen Herman, our special guest and most welcome companion. John Lewis also came along, "to get his feet wet", and we were glad that he could join us. The rest of the expedition included Shirley Lake, Joan Hall, Veda Nomura, Aileen Nettleton, Karen Childs, Peg Stevenson, Julia Bonser, and myself, Holly Loring. Thanks to one and all!

CHANNING-Murray
sponsors Thursday lunch get-togethers from noon to 1.30 pm in the Memorial Union, on campus, often with interesting special guests. ~~The first lunch this semester will be Sept. 7th.~~ Check the "In the Union Today" posting for the location. Call Holly Loring for more information.

LRV Is anyone of highschool age interested in knowing others of the same age? Well LRV wants — to get to know you too! If you would like to get together, Carolyn is willing to hear from you at 233-4374. Please call me, and we can see what happens from there. This is a Prairie LRV now.
