R.E. BROCHURES

The Religious Education brochures are ready for distribution. Please, only one to a family. The R.E. Committee wishes to express appreciation to Lee Bullen for the fine printing job. Do you know the children in the picture on the front of the brochure?

-- R.E. Committee

This issue of Prairie Fire was mailed a day late because of a power outage in McFarland on Wednesday afternoon. Sorry.

R.E. CORNER

Get ready for a new beginning! Regular classes will start on Sunday, Feb.15, with a new teacher for grades 3-5, David Lisman, who will lead the discussion on Why Do Bad Things Happen?

The middle schoolers will focus on The Church Across the Street, with Glenn Chambliss, Shirley Grindrod, and Gerald Beroldi.

After the terrific R.E. Conclave lastweek-end, our sights are really out of sight! We may need some help in coming down to reality, but hope to keep some of the inspiration that was in abundance.

R.E. Conclave, a meeting of district R.E. directors and heads of district R.E. committees from all over the country and from Canada (Maine to California, Edmonton, Alberta to Florida), was hosted by Prairie last week-end. Eugene Navias, Ann Fields, and Betty Anastos were here from the UUA Boston office to lead a very intensive and exciting workshop on the WHAT, WHERE, WHERE, WHO, and HOW of religious education. We wish we could share with all of you some of the wonderful ideas that were expressed.

Thanks--many, many thanks-- to all the Prairie families that provided home hospitality and helped with the cooking and serving of the food. This was truly a cooperative venture. Special thanks to Marcia Bradley who coordinated all the food, and did a lot of the cooking too.

And thanks to the First Unitarian Society for lending us their folding tables.
